

Jessi Davis

Jessi Davis MHPS, RSPS is a Texas based Peer Specialist with a focus on providing peer support services to adolescents and transition age youth. In her role at Via Hope, Jessi works to implement peer support for Transition Age Youth across the state. Her direct peer support experience includes supporting those in the foster care system, youth with substance use and mental health challenges, and those just beginning their pathway to wellness. Jessi has spoken and presented at state and national conferences, and has received recognition at the national level for her leadership work as a youth.