

10/24/2018

Lisa Goodale

Lisa Goodale is a national leader committed to improving health care, fostering partnerships, and advancing the peer provider workforce, currently serving as Consulting Services Vice President at the Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance (DBSA). She was an Expert Panel Member for the Peer Specialist Services in the VA: Fidelity of Implementation study and is a co-author of Pillars of peer support: transforming mental health systems of care through peer support services; National Survey of Compensation Among Peer Support Specialists (The College for Behavioral Health Leadership); and An online recovery plan program: can peer coaching increase participation? (Psychiatric Services). Goodale holds an MSW degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and a BA degree from Augustana College (Illinois). It is her joy and special privilege to have been invited along on the recovery journeys of so many courageous people.