

Carrie Hermance

Carrie Hermance is currently the Network Manager for the Wellness Collaborative of New York – Independent Practice Association, a state-wide organization comprised of genuine, peer-run agencies providing peer support services, training, and advocacy. Partners include Mental Health Empowerment Project; Baltic Street Advocacy, Housing and Employment; Independent Living, Inc.; Housing Options, Inc.; PEOPLE, Inc.; and others. Carrie's past healthcare experience includes serving as the Director of Marketing for Dana-Farber/Partners CancerCare, a collaboration in oncology among Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Brigham and Women's Hospital, and Massachusetts General Hospital; Vice President of Marketing at Holyoke Hospital in Massachusetts, and a national healthcare consultant providing strategic marketing services to a range of health systems and other nonprofit organizations. Her 35 years of professional experience also includes teaching math at public schools in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Carrie received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, an MBA with a concentration in Healthcare Management, and is currently pursuing a Certificate in Financial Planning from Boston University. Having received a psychiatric diagnosis of depression many years ago, Carrie is personally aware of the discrimination and misunderstanding this can cause and is passionate about helping others to find their voice in recovery.
